THE FEMINISATION OF POVERTY IN IRELAND

Liz Madden's presentation looks at the growing trend of poverty amongst female-led households. In Ireland single mothers are increasingly affected by poverty, with one-parent families experiencing the highest deprivation rates (56%). Welfare dependency, low-levels of education & lack of childcare all contribute towards the feminisation of poverty. Invisible factors like stigmatisation & ingrained attitudes have a huge impact on the lives of single mothers, causing women to experience low confidence, which prevents them from accessing opportunities.

FEAR OF CRIME: THE ROLE OF THE MEDIA

"Fearful people are more dependant, more easily manipulated and controlled, more susceptible to deceptively simple, strong, tough measures and hard-line postures...they may accept and welcome repression if it promises to relieve their insecurities and other anxieties." Reiner.

Clíodhna O'Callaghan examines the link between various criminological theories and the fear of crime. It focuses on the role played by the media, for example: Is the media increasing the instance of crime? Does the media influence the opinion of the public & politicians on criminal justice issues?

FROM SLAVERY TO PRESIDENCY: AMERICA'S BATTLE WITH RACISM

Anthony Angelini explores the issue of race through the prism of the anti-slavery movement in America in the 19th century. He also discusses the Civil Rights movement in the 1960s & the election & re-election of Barack Obama. He looks at the social situation & the impact of literature, art & film in breaking down the barriers between black and white.

7.30pmBowen Room, Gresham Metropole Hotel, MacCurtain StJAMES CONNOLLY - LECTURE & DISCUSSION

On 8th April 1916, just before the Easter Rising, the Irish Citizen Army raised the green flag over Liberty Hall. Connolly declared: "The cause of labour is the cause of Ireland, the cause of Ireland is the cause of labour. They cannot be dissevered."

In his lecture Diarmaid Ó Cadhla of the future Initiative argues that Connolly was proud to raise the green flag of Ireland & that today, dogmatists & sham socialists criticise Connolly, they deny a common national interest & claim that there are only class interests. Booking appreciated.

The future Initiative is an association of individuals investigating topics of Irish history & contemporary developments, producing analysis of current affairs & politics. The association is non-party political, it facilitates discussion on major issues in modern Ireland.
