“The Council recognises its previous excellent record from the 1930s to the 1980s in providing high quality public housing in estates such as Mayfield, Ballyphehane, Gurrabraher and Mahon, and further recognises that the state, through fundamental changes in policy at national level since the 1980s has abrogated the role of housing provision to predominantly private interests whose prime interest is the creation of profit for themselves and their investors.

In recognising that the private sector and massive subsidisation of landlords and developers has failed to address the housing crisis, Cork City Council accepts that a severe housing crisis now exists. This crisis affects thousands of low and middle income households in this city. In view of this, this Council supports the development of a pilot scheme of 100% public, mixed-income housing on publicly owned lands at Boherboy Road, Mayfield.

Under the scheme, all housing on the site will be built by and rented from the City Council, with 50% of housing units rented at current differential rents to households currently on housing waiting lists, while 50% of housing units will be rented to households earning above the waiting list threshold, but with demonstrated housing need, and paying higher but fair rents in line with their income”

‘I call on Cork City Council to begin a campaign to deter “on street begging” on our streets. In recent months “on street begging” has become an immense problem for retailers, the general public and visitors to our city. The campaign should promote a “NIL AON AIRGEAD AGAM” slogan that will entice members of the public to refrain from giving money to beggars and consider providing food and water if they so wish as an alternative. Members of the public should further be encouraged to say “NIL AON AIRGEAD AGAM” to beggars and to donate any money to the proper volunteer groups who will see to it that this donated money is spent to relieve the hardship in an equal and controlled manner by providing food, water, shelter and bedding etc. The “NIL AON AIRGEAD AGAM” Campaign, if so adopted, could be a joint venture with the CBA, Cork Chamber and other interested organisations, retailers and volunteer groups.’
