Cork Christmas Parade 2026

There will be a Christmas Parade in Cork city centre on Sunday November 15th.

The parade will have Dancers, Music and SANTA. They will move along the street.

This map shows where the parade will be. You and your family and friends can come see the parade pass by.

The parade will start at 6:30pm.

The weather may be bad. 😟

You might need a warm raincoat.

The Christmas Parade will have Dancers, Music and SANTA.

You can find a place to stand on the footpath to watch it pass by.

Be careful not to step into the parade.

The streets will be noisy and full of people.

If you need to, you can come to this part of Patrick's Street.

On parade day this is called the Accessible Zone.

That picture looks calm, but it will be very busy on Sunday - more like this!

This sign will help you find the Accessible Zone

On parade day there will be parade staff here to help you.

You can bring one family member with you into the Accessible Zone.

We hope you enjoy the Christmas Parade!
